The London Marathon

What Is the London Marathon?

The London Marathon is a long-distance running race. Runners from around the world come to take part in the route around London which is 26 miles and 385 yards long. Runners are cheered on by crowds of spectators and are treated to many famous sites in London, such as Tower Bridge.

When Was the First London Marathon?

The first London Marathon took place on 29th March, 1981. It was the idea of John Disley and Chris Brasher, who had recently taken part in the New York Marathon. They loved the cheering crowds and carnival atmosphere and wanted to see if a London Marathon could be even better. After lots of planning, the first London Marathon had 20,000 people wanting to run. 7,747 runners were allowed to take part with thousands of spectators lining the course. It was a hit!

Questions

1. What is the London Marathon?

2. Why do you think it is important for the crowds of spectators to cheer?

3. When was the first London Marathon?

4. Why did John Disley and Chris Brasher have the idea for the London Marathon.

Give two reasons.

5. How many people entered the first London Marathon?

History
